

Press Release

Dubarise, from Stuttgart (GER) stand for a finely tuned mosaic of rich bass, livening offbeats and lots of love for reggae and dub. By playing powerful songs, the eight-piece band inspires their audiences to dance to the soundscapes of dub and roots reggae. Their lyrics move between social commentary and deep thoughtfulness.

In mid-2024, the band released their celebrated debut LP “Eyes Open” with 10 songs and two dubs. The album offers “relaxed roots reggae with powerful basslines, lots of saxophone and harmonious synth accompaniments” (Irie Ites Magazine). The LP also features other artists including Nick Sefakis (“Rooftop”) and Awa Fall (“Emergency”).

Dubarise can look back on numerous concerts, including “U&D Stuttgart” and the “Keep it Real Jam” in 2022, as well as successful tours in 2023 and 2024 with stops at “Reggae in My Garden”, the “Murgfestival” and numerous other festivals and concerts.

For the 2025 festival and concert season, Dubarise are ready to go, especially with their new album and are already working on new music, which will be released in spring.

“So tune in and let the Dubarise!”
